COLLINGSWOOD, NEW JERSEY (May 3, 2018) – Students from the Just Kids Program at Tatem Elementary in Collingswood, created and won the NJSACC's (New Jersey's School Age Care Coalition) first ever annual Celebrate Afterschool Poster Contest! The NJSACC, the Statewide Network for New Jersey's Afterschool Communities, received over one hundred posters from fourteen different afterschool care programs throughout the great state of New Jersey. Poster submissions were due in March and created by youth attending afterschool programs located in New Jersey. Students in the Just Kids Program at Tatem Elementary worked together and made a colorful puzzle piece poster listing out what they love to do in their afterschool program. They will receive a $50.00 gift card to use towards an event of their choice.

The children in the Just Kids Program at Tatem Elementary have a very special reason for choosing the artwork that they created for the winning poster. Their inspiration came from some of the children in the Just Kids Program who have autism. Each of the kids designed their own puzzle piece and then fit them all together. Much like a puzzle, it can be difficult to make sense of something or put the pieces together when individually each one of us faces unique challenges. It may not always be easy since each person has their own way of fitting in, however it's these differences that make us a unit. The children in the Just Kids Program at Tatem Elementary want to promote autism awareness and they want to do what they can so that others will be more accepting of it too.

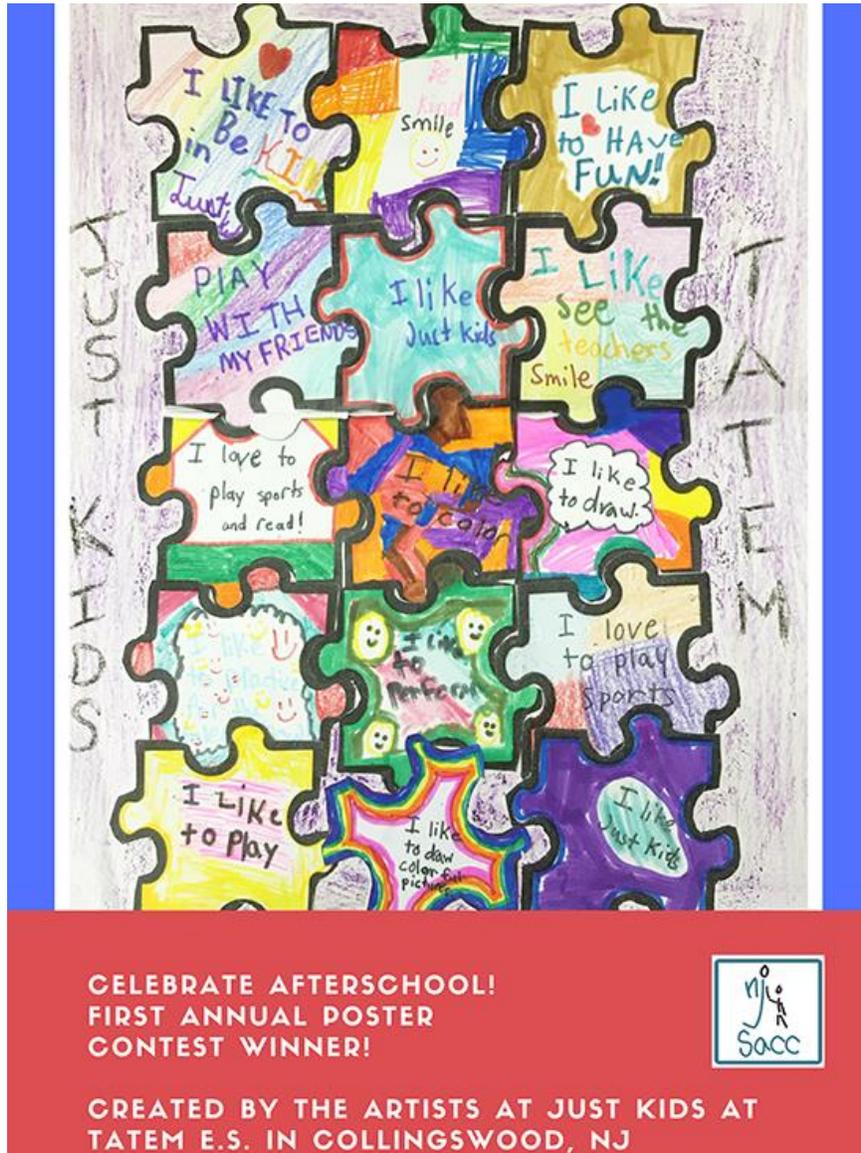

The following artists from the Just Kids Program at Tatem Elementary contributed to the winning poster: Makeena, Clementine, Freya, Abby, Graham, Gabriella, Emilia, Samantha, Maddy, Caroline, Bailey, Clayton, Sophia, Josie, and Benjamin. As you can see in the photo below, it was truly a team effort.

“The children loved being able to create artwork that symbolizes how we embrace each other’s differences at Just Kids. They wanted to make puzzle pieces to support their peers, promote autism awareness and show how compassionate and accepting we should be of others, no matter how different they may be. To say that I am proud would be a huge understatement, all of the staff here are,” states Narci Alwan, Just Kids Program Supervisor, Tatem Elementary.
